WARNING: By signing, the signor authorizes the County or any of its duly authorized representatives to verify the information contained herein, including this section. Any person who knowingly makes a false claim or statement to Housing and Urban Development (HUD) or causes another to do so may be subject to civil or criminal penalties under 18 U.S.C. 287, 1001 and 31 U.S.C. 3729. Title 18, Section 1001 of the U.S. Code states that a person is guilty of a felony for knowingly and willfully making false or fraudulent statements to any department of the United States Government.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY: In accordance with the provisions of the Equal Opportunity Act and County policies, there will be no discrimination against an applicant for the Voluntary Housing Buyout Program benefits based on age, source of income, sex, race, marital status, sexual orientation, national origin, religion, or handicap. If you or a member of your household is an individual with a disability, you have the right to request reasonable accommodation for that disability.

CONFIDENTIALITY: To process an application for the Voluntary Housing Buyout Program, the County may supply and receive information as identified above. Information may also be released to comply with the auditing requirements of program funders and released in accordance with federal and state records request laws (Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C § 552 and Uniform Information Practices Act, HRS § 92F). With these exceptions, all personal and identifying information on an application remains fully confidential.

DISCLAIMER: The County of Hawaii and Disaster Recovery Division has made every effort to ensure the information contained on this form is accurate and in compliance with the most up to date CDBG-DR federal rules and regulations, as applicable. It should be noted that the County of Hawaii and County's Disaster Recovery Division assumes no liability or responsibility for any error or omission on this form that may result from the interim period between the publication of amended and/or revised federal rules and regulations and the County's subsequent updates to program guidance and tools.
